

PARK RIDGE ACTIVE RIDING GROUP

Newsletter - November 2022

Message from the President

- We are now at the pointy end of the year. Unfortunately wet weather caused the cancellation of the Fun Day with riders advising of their preferred refund requirements with regards to the donation to Cancer Council. As stated we will do the Dress up at hopefully the first ribbon day in 2023. With regards the online competition, of those surveyed and replied 7 said yes and the balance no. The dressage committee will talk further about.
- Clinics – The clinic on 8th October which was partially funded by EQ with coaches Geraldine Van Montfrans and Kristy Battista was well attended. Nicole Magoffin's clinic on 19th November is full and draw will be out prior to the day.
- Last but not least don't forget to BOOK NOW FOR THE TROPHY NIGHT AND AGM. BOOKINGS CLOSE 7TH NOVEMBER. Go to Nominate to book and have fun with your PRARG friends.
- Trophy points— in the newsletter are the points from the internal ribbon and fun days. Due to two days being washed out, the requirement to have attended three days to be eligible for points has been lowered to two days. The rest of the trophies ie open dressage, pony trophy and others will be named on the night.
- Logan City Council Sports Administrator of the Year. I'm very honoured to be awarded the City of Logan 2022 Sports awards - Sports administrator of the year with the announcement on 29th October and Cr Natalie Willocks coming to PRARG at the end of the summer series 1st leg. Thank you to everyone who helps me behind the scenes.

Happy riding everyone

Kay
