

PARK RIDGE ACTIVE RIDING GROUP INC.

MEMBERS' HANDBOOK for 2022

Updated February 2022

Welcome to PARK RIDGE ACTIVE RIDING GROUP

It gives the club pleasure to present this handbook as a guide to members.

For some historical background, the club was formed in 1981 by a group of enthusiastic riders wishing to create a group for adults. The club in the early years centred on fortnightly training lessons and informal friendly hack and dressage competitions. Park Ridge Pony Club grounds and McDonald's residence, Judith Street, Crestmead were the initial club venues. Club instructors in the early days were Kate Dolan (nee Lever), Joan McQuillan and Lex Wills.

As the years progressed so did the standard of the riders and their aspirations. The internal days and lessons continued, and also open competitions were conducted.

The club moved to its home grounds "Skerman Park", Cnr Olson & Teviot Roads, North Maclean in 1985. These grounds had been leased from the Beaudesert Shire Council until the amalgamation in 2008. PRARG is now within Logan City Council region.

Much hard work has been done by club members over the years to create what members continue to enjoy today. This has been rewarded with PRARG being awarded Dressage Queensland Club of the Year for 2021. Previously, PRARG has won this award in 2012, 2013 and 2018, plus Equestrian Queensland Club of the Year and National Club of the Year in 2013.

To reflect the activities of the club, in 2013 the club voted to change the "A" from adult to active. This is now legally approved.

Today PRARG as its affectionally known in the horse world is one of the major equestrian clubs catering specifically to the dressage and jumping disciplines. Super Clinics are conducted several times a year with a variety of instructors and covering many aspects of horsemastership. Regular training is provided, depending on members' needs.

Whether you are just a beginner or a "seasoned" competitor, the club has much to offer with open and internal competition days and schools.

MEMBERS' INFORMATION

Membership Renewal: Members will receive an email via the Nominate Membership Management System (MMS) in the first week of January inviting them to renew their membership. Merchandise can also be purchased when renewing online. Payment online by debit/credit card is preferred to minimise double handling in the renewal process. However if you want to fully or part pay with vouchers, we are arranging a function to do this online. For payments by bank transfer, please contact prarg.membership@gmail.com.

Merchandise

- Club Shirts $28.00 – Size 8 to 2XL
- Yards $11/yr, $5.50 (half year)
- Key $27.50/yr, $13.50 (half year)
- Club Pin Badges $5.50
- Printed Newsletters $11.00/yr, $5.50 (half year)

Sign On Day: Traditionally the Sign On day was for members (new and renewals) to complete and submit their paper membership form and make payment either by eftpos, cash or vouchers, as well as to pick up their membership cards and any merchandise ordered. With the Nominate MMS now in place, a Sign On Day will still take place but primary for members to pick up cards/merchandise etc, catch up with fellow members and to pay their membership fees if they can't do this online via Nominate. The 2022 Sign On Day is taking place on 22 January 8am to 10am.

Use of grounds: All riding at the grounds must conform with the requirements as set out by the Management Committee and as per signs on the gate and fence line. Keys are numbered & will be changed alternate years for security purposes. The club takes seriously its responsibility in Risk Management. However, all riders should realise horses are unpredictable creatures and horse riding is deemed a dangerous sport, so the onus is on all riders to be aware of your own safety regarding you, your horse and others at any time you are on the grounds. If you ride on the grounds outside of club events you do not have personal insurance cover. It is highly recommended that members take out EQ insurance so that you are covered 24/7 when riding, working your horse at home as well as when out and about.

Anna Flohr is the “keeper of the grounds” and erects the sign on gate when it is too wet or maintenance is in progress. Facebook and the website is continually updated. Anna’s phone number is on page 3 under Management Committee.

Things to note:

- If you are aware of a non-insured instructor giving lessons, please let a committee member know.
- If you are aware of non PRARG members being given access either while a member is present or by members failing to lock the gates as they leave, please let a committee member know.
- If you find the gate unlocked please lock it. Members that need access have keys.
- All members are equal and have equal rights to use of the arenas. Lessons do not have priority unless at a club sanctioned event but arena riding protocols need to be observed.
- Wet weather – please be considerate when using grounds/arenas after rain. If it’s too wet at your place, PRARG might be the same.
- As part of our lease agreement with Logan City Council, the grounds will be closed on Good Friday and Anzac Day until 1pm.

Horse Health Declaration (HHD) Forms: Must be submitted every time you use the grounds (not just competition days). This can be done via the online form or hard copy (see website on how to access these). If completing a hard copy, this is to be left in the old BBQ in the undercover area of the grounds.

Lunging at the grounds: See Club By Laws on page 7

Keys: A key is available for $27.50 per year to gain access to the grounds on non-competition days.

Yards: Yards are allocated each year following request by members on their membership forms. Yards are $11.00 per year. Members are encouraged to “look after” their yard and clean up after use. Any major maintenance is done by the club. Yards are numbered from 1–32 (Olson Road end) to finish (container end). There are 5 designated stallion yards around the grounds. Covered yards near the wash bay (33-36) and five yards other side of wash bay (37-41) and four yards near the lunge yard (42-45).

Dogs on grounds: Dogs are not allowed on the grounds at any time whilst horses are present. Having dogs on the grounds is a risk to the safety of riders and horses. Your assistance in complying is sought – see By Law No.14

Hiring of grounds: The grounds are available for hire to outside organisations that meet the criteria established by the committee especially regarding risk management/insurance. Any enquiries should be directed to the President and/or Secretary. Members are asked not to use grounds when hired out. Dates are always listed in newsletters and on website.

Working Bees/Workers Levy: Maintenance of the grounds is the club’s responsibility not Logan City Council. The club does pay for regular maintenance on the grounds, but at times general working bees must be held, especially if storm damage/ grass growth makes it necessary. Help is always welcome especially if you use the arenas regularly e.g. harrowing / pulling sand back from sides. Members and/or partners are rewarded with double reward vouchers for working bee attendance. As a condition of membership, the club charges a compulsory grounds levy of $20 per member (this is incorporated as part of the base membership fee). Reward vouchers @ $10 can be earned if you work at a working bees/help on a competition day/help as requested by the committee for special requirements e.g. mowing/fertilising. Working bees for competitions are always the day prior unless prior arrangements are made on an individual basis. This normally takes the form of harrowing and doing arena sides, cleaning toilets, filling fridges etc.

Competition Days: Any questions should be directed to gear check. Members are requested not to use the arenas or 10-minute box once they have been harrowed prior to a competition (usually the afternoon before).

Competition Dress Standards:

- Open Official/Participation - as per EA rules unless stated otherwise.
- Internal competitions e.g. ribbon or fun days – EA dress or club polo shirt may be worn. A long sleeve light blue polo shirt or sun sleeves may be worn. Dark coloured jodhpurs may be worn instead of light colours.

Ribbons/placings:

- Official dressage competitions ribbons or rosettes go to 6th place. Ties are allowed in official competitions if equality can't be resolved.
- Open Participation & Ribbon / Fun Day competitions ribbons go to 10th place, ties allowed if equality can't be resolved.
- Hack classes: Ribbons to 4th.

Open and Internal Ribbon Colours. 1st – Blue / 2nd – Red / 3rd – Yellow / 4th – Green / 5th – Pink / 6th – Brown / 7th – Light Blue / 8th – Lime Green / 9th – Lilac / 10th – Orange

Help at competitions: As part of entry requirements (open/internal) riders are asked to a job. To be fair to all riders, please contribute your share.

Reward Vouchers: Vouchers are given in return for help at competitions - open and internal (non riders), working bees etc. Vouchers are valued at $10. Working bee vouchers will be doubled to encourage better participation. Tag along helpers are also eligible for vouchers (see working bees above). The more you help, the more you get. Vouchers can be used towards membership fees/competition entries/PRARG schools/social functions.

COMPETITION INFORMATION

The Club runs Star Championships, Official, Participation (inc EQ Leader board) and Club dressage events generally between March and October. There are additional club events through the year; three Ribbon Days (featuring Prep to GP and freestyles, plus hack classes and protocol/meet the judge tests) and two Fun Days (as per ribbon days plus sporting classes). A Summer Series is held between October and December, featuring two to three separate events (depending on weather) with accumulating points for each one attended and a Summer Series champion for each level. As this series is usually not completed until after the trophy presentation, winners will be announced and prizes given at the sign on day in January.

The Trophy presentation is held at the AGM/Xmas Dinner which usually takes place on a Saturday evening mid to late November. See page 9 for information about qualifying points.

Super Clinics, Pole Clinics and Protocol Days are held between February and October which are open to both members and non-members (however non-members must be EA members).

Saddlery Markets are held at the grounds twice a year – usually on Easter Saturday and the last Saturday in October.

If you don't already have your own personal insurance to cover yourself for riding accidents, it is highly recommended that you also become a member of EA (a recreational member level is sufficient if you only want to ride socially or enter club level events). The EA National Insurance Programme offers EA members 24/7 Personal Accident and Public Liability Insurance whilst engaged in non-income earning equestrian activities.

BIOSECURITY QUEENSLAND

A Property Identification Code (PIC) is used by Biosecurity Queensland and is unique to your property or where you keep your horse.

This code is necessary for maintaining property and livestock records as part of the National Livestock Identification System (NLIS).

This is to:

- Protect our livestock industries from pests and diseases
- Provide a system for individual or group identification if your stock are removed from your property
- Allow you to record individual performance data for management and breeding purposes.

All Queensland properties that have livestock, such as cattle and horses, must have a PIC number.

If you have not already provided PRARG with your PIC number when joining or renewing your membership, please email it to prarg.membership@gmail.com

Failure to register your property with Biosecurity Queensland can result in a $4,000 fine.

Further PIC information can be found here (or use a search engine using Property Identification Codes Queensland)

CONCUSSION PROTOCOL

There is growing concern in Australia and internationally about the incidence of sport-related concussion and potential health ramifications for athletes. EA made managing and reporting concussion for Equestrian Sport mandatory from 1st January 2021 and has developed a 'Concussion in Sport reporting Protocol'. This describes the process for their Medical Service Providers (supporting organising committees and clubs such as PRARG) and EA Accredited Coaches, Officials and Clubs to complete. This forms part of the EA Overarching National Event-Activity Medical & Reporting Protocol.

PRARG event officials have completed EA Concussion Training and will follow the EA Concussion Protocol. Full details of the requirements and management process are available via this link: <https://www.equestrian.org.au/content/health-and-safety-training>

PREPARING FOR COMPETITIONS

(by Christine Thompson and Di Smith)

Some pointers to help your day flow better when competing at PRARG internal dressage and open days.

1. If you can plait your horse the night before competition (great) but plaiting is not compulsory at club days.
2. Pack your car & float (It's a great idea) the night before. Less stress than in the morning. Just give a recheck before leaving home (especially when you find out you have left the girth at home). Plus take an extra lead rope (always handy) halter and a bucket.
3. Give yourself plenty of time to get to the grounds. If you are lucky enough to have a strapper, ask them to go over to check gear to find out if there have been any scratchings. You may have to ride earlier.

Remember only when competing official you may keep to your riding time. For PRARG ribbon days these are approximate times as we normally run early with scratchings (so be prepared).

WARMING UP:

- Always ride in the warm up arena and lunge in the lunging area. These are marked.
- If you have a strapper, they can lunge for you. If they are mounted on your horse, they can only walk on a long rein. If they do more than walk, you will be eliminated.
- You may use when warming up, running martingales (with a snaffle bit), boots, bandages but ALL MUST BE TAKEN OFF BEFORE GOING TO GEAR CHECK
- Remember you can have a caller for your tests except for FEI and Combined Training dressage

WARM UP RULES:

- When warming up always be courteous. Although there are no written rules to cover the problem, riders should always pass left shoulder to left shoulder or just keep to the right of everyone.
- There are a few other rules to remember. Any rider doing lateral work has the right of way. This also applies to medium or extended work as well.

SADDLERY & CLOTHING;

- English type saddles, fully mounted is compulsory and may be used with or without a saddle blanket. Please note that for the no canter class – saddle type is optional
- A noseband must be used of the following types:
Cavesson – Dropped – Crossover (also known as grackle or Mexican) – Flash – Hanoverian
- Only a cavesson can be used with a simple double bridle.
- White, off white or beige jodhpurs or breeches, hacking coat and approved safety helmet, gloves, tie, stock or ratcatcher and riding boots. PRARG club shirts are encouraged at ribbon days. Please be aware that the EA rules get updated each year and it's the riders responsibility to be aware of any rule changes.

NOW YOU ARE READY TO DO YOUR TEST:

- You will be called to gear check to have your gear checked. Gear check is visual only except for the need to check whip length and spurs. Please make sure any protection boots on the horse are removed prior to arriving at gear check. Once this has been done, you then proceed to the 10 minute warm up area
- When the rider before you has saluted on completion of their test, you can then proceed to your arena
- If you have been allocated bridle or rider numbers, you do not need to stop and talk to the judges. Ride pass so the penciller can see your number

- When the car horn or bell sounds, you are given 45 seconds to enter the arena and you should proceed the shortest way possible.
- Once completed the test, halted and saluted, leave the arena and walk on a long rein. Ride past gear check and check out so they can keep the flow of riders going. You are required to present to gear check before EVERY test or you will incur elimination.

IN THE SHOW RING

(by Peter Cornwall)

All your efforts for many months have been directed towards this moment - your first show ring class. The first rule you must remember is, BE ON TIME! Whether you're entering a led or ridden class it is essential that you are waiting in the marshalling area before your class is called into the ring. The announcer will give two or three marshalling calls for each class while the preceding class is being judged. You must be ready to enter the ring as soon as your class is called - don't expect the steward to let you in once judging has commenced.

HACK AND RIDER CLASSES

Ring procedure for hack and rider classes is the same- When the class is called, enter the ring at the walk in a clockwise direction. The judge will wait in the centre of the ring while the ring steward collects your entry ticket, or checks your number off on the catalogue. During this period you can trot your horse to warm up, but keep an eye on the steward and judge and come back to a walk as soon as the judge steps forward to begin judging. Use the warm-up period to get yourself well-positioned on the ring. You want the judge to be able to see you and your horse, so don't stay bunched up with other riders. Keep as much distance between yourself and other competitors as possible.

Judging commences as soon as the judge or steward asks the class to "walk on please", so make sure your horse is walking calmly and freely, flexed correctly and in a good frame. The judge or steward will ask you to trot and then canter on the circle. You should take the faster pace as soon as possible after it is called for, but don't rush the transition. Take a couple of paces to balance your horse so that the transition is smooth.

A vital part of ring craft lies in keeping your horse "in the judge's eye" on the circle. Keep as much distance between yourself and other competitors as possible. In particular, try not to work on the outside of another horse, but at the same time don't make your circle so small that you are riding almost on top of the judge. You may be asked to change direction through the circle, so that you trot or canter past the judge and then take up the new direction. The steward will indicate one rider to start the change of direction and all the other riders follow that person. You may also be asked to change direction by reversing on the circle. This is usually asked for at the walk and you change direction by turning out of the circle.

As soon as the judge has seen all the horses walking, trotting and cantering he or she will begin selecting horses for individual workouts. The steward calls horses into the ring centre to line up in the order of preference indicated by the judge. The first horse called in is the one the judge like best on the ring. The second horse called in lines up to the left of the first horse, unless otherwise indicated by the steward. The third horse stands to the left of the second horse in the line up and so on down the line. Depending on the size of the class the judge will normally call in a few more horses than the number of ribbons to be awarded. When all these horses are called in, the steward will announce "That's all thank you" The remaining competitors should immediately leave the ring at a walk.

If you are called in, don't simply charge off the ring into the line-up. Bring your horse back to a trot or walk and look carefully to ensure that you don't cross into the path of another rider as you move to ring centre. In the line-up keep a safe distance between your horse and those on either side. Make sure your horse is standing square but let it relax while other horses are being called in. When the horses are lined up for the judge, the steward may ask all competitors to move to another position to allow a larger area for individual workouts. Line up in the same order as you were called in.

Before the individual workout the judge will inspect each horse while it is standing still. Your horse should be standing square, balanced and flexed on the bit. The judge may run his or hands down your horse's legs and/or check its teeth. During the judge's inspection, sit still, look straight ahead and concentrate on keeping your horse still. The judge or the steward will explain the individual workout. Depending on the size of the class, the workout may be explained just once so that all riders can hear, or to each rider individually as their turn comes to perform it. Some judges have their workout prepared as a diagram on a piece of paper which is handed to each rider.

Listen carefully to the workout and quickly repeat it back to the steward or judge if you aren't certain that you have understood it correctly. Boy and gent riders should always remove their caps when being spoken to by the judge. Girl and lady riders simple acknowledge the judge with a slight nod of the head. Smile!

If your horse is very restless or agitated in the line- up, you may walk quietly behind the other horses, but come back into the line-up when the horse before you begins its workout. Some shows will not allow this. When your turn comes to workout, use the area indicated by the judge or steward. Don't stray outside the area, but do use it all. A common mistake is to make the workout small and tight, which doesn't give the horse a chance to show its paces properly.

At the end of your workout, the steward will indicate which position you should take when you return to the line-up. Some judges ask for horses to return to their original positions and only call horses forward in order of placing when they are sashed. Others re-arrange the line-up as each horse has worked out so that, after the last horse has performed, the class is arranged in order in which the horses will be sashed.

At the end of the class the judge will move along the line-up awarding the ribbons. In a hack class the ribbons are tied around the horse's necks. In rider classes the ribbons are tied around the riders' left arms. Male riders remove their hats while the judge is tying on the ribbon. Don't try to start a conversation with the judge -just smile and say thank you when he or she congratulates you. Don't address the judge by name-.After the ribbons are awarded, quietly turn and congratulate the riders on either side of you. The steward will move along the line-up behind the judge taking the names of the horse and its owner in hack classes, and the name of the rider in rider classes.

After all ribbons are awarded and the steward has taken all the names, the first place horse and rider leave the ring at a trot. The other placegetters follow in order of placings. Unplaced horse and riders leave the ring last unless they have already been dismissed by the steward-

If you are unplaced in a class and your next class in another ring is about to start, you may ask the steward's permission to leave. Leave quietly at the walk. Never leave the ring without first obtaining the steward's permission.

After your class you must leave the ring even if you are entering the next class. Remove your ribbon if you have been awarded one and put it out of sight - don't ride back into the ring for your next class with a ribbon dangling out of your pocket.
