THE COACHES

Liz Coe National “A” level Grand Prix Judge / National Young Horse Judge/Judge Educator & Examiner / National Para Equestrian Judge. EA accredited & insured coach. 30 years a competitive EA Dressage rider training horses from broken to FEI level with wins and placings at State and National Championships. Winner of Dressage Queensland Perpetual Trophy “Benalbyn Lodge Advanced Dressage Horse of the Year” with “Aragon Park Idle Gossip” (picture). Member of the QLD State Dressage Performance Squad for multiple years. I enjoy working with students of many levels, ages & abilities working on their “position” to improve communication with their horse and help reach their goals of success at local/State or National. Grant subsidised fee: EA /PRARG Members who are EA members: $50, PRARG members who are non-EA $60

Jeanette Bourke is a Level 1 EA Dressage Coach and has been competing officially at Dressage for nearly 40 years part thereof in Sydney. Jeanette’s trained 4 horses Richmond, Argyle, Jaybee Althea and JCB Admire to FEI level and is now competing on a youngest Lord of Jive. Jeanette has been on the QLD Dressage Performance Squad. Jeanette trains riders from Preliminary to Advanced, specialising in nervous beginners. Grant subsidised fee: EA/PRARG Members who are EA members: $50, PRARG members who are non-EA $60

Jacqui Huppert is a Grand Prix (GP) Rider, NCAS Level 2 Specialist Dressage Coach, ‘A’ level GP and Young Horse Dressage judge and Judge Mentor. Jacqui has been a member of the EQ State Dressage Squad on QEB Jinglebell Swing, QEB King of Swing and QEB Bolero and now competing successfully on Cognac Diamond. Jacqui concentrates on the rider’s position and effectiveness of the aids to maximise the potential of the horse/ rider combination. Jacqui believes in creating suppleness and elasticity in both horse and rider to improve the fluidity of the combination and their ability to ride in harmony together. Grant subsidised fee: EA/PRARG Members who are EA members: $63, PRARG members who are non-EA $73
