Di Rickards is an EA NCAS Level 1 Specialist Dressage Coach as well as a rider. She has competed for over 40 years in showing, eventing and dressage (up to FEI Level). Di was a dressage judge for 26 years, judging in most states and territories. Di's coaching philosophy centres around the rider position being paramount to how the horse moves. A good rider position will help the horse carry the rider in the most effective and efficient way. Di also teaches dressage ring-craft as competitions can be won or lost through inaccurate riding. Fee: EA Members $80, PRARG $70

Nicole Magoffin teaches with a sympathetic and kind approach to both horses and riders while still achieving results. Her methods are strongly based on the training scale and the result is producing soft, supple and rideable horses. Having worked alongside Jonah Oliver (leading sports psychologist) she also encompasses great techniques for people who struggle with nerves both riding at home and out at competitions. A QLD and NZ National team representative on many occasions, In 2018/19 Nicole travelled back and forth to Germany riding the beautiful Jaybee Ryana and training with Lientje Schueler, she spent 6months in the USA training with Steffen Peters on her previous Grand Prix horse Jaybee Anzac. Nicole has an obvious love for coaching and promotes performance and harmony together. Fee: EA Members $90, PRARG $80

Geraldine Van Montfrans Specialises in horses that don't fit the conventional mould as well as young and green horses. The emphasis of lessons are in both the horses body control and the riders position and how this influences both the rider and horse. Geraldine has taken riders from beginning level through to state and national level in Interschool Equestrian, Pony Club, AAOR and Open EA in the disciplines of Dressage, Show Jumping and Eventing. (the flat work phase).The unity and partnership of both horse and rider being the ultimate goal. Long reining
